

Flexi-Time All of the Time

WE MANAGED 10 LANGUAGES FOR A FASHION GIANT'S SHOW OVER 2 WEEKS.

ALPHA

We at Alpha pride ourselves on our company's ability to flexibly and effectively adapt to our clients' needs. We go the extra mile to ensure quality and value in our work.

When a client of ours, a world-famous fashion house, asked us to cover their big biannual show, we were ready and able. We were to cover 10 languages over two weeks and a weekend.

First, we needed a schedule for our in-house team, with 10 linguists and 1-2 PMs working at once. Overtime and a tracking system were vital to keep on top of so much content.

The previous system was a clunky collection of offline spreadsheets and inefficient copy-and-pasting. We tightened up the whole process and made life a lot easier for everyone. The team sure earned that overtime!

In the end, we had everything covered. Our in-house team worked in shifts over the hectic two weeks and weekend around the show. Our client was pleased with our flexibility, diligence, and quality.
